Smith joins Cushman & Wakefield

MORRISTOWN: Leslie E. Smith has joined Cushman & Wakefield, Inc. as a senior director, the commercial real estate firm announced this week. Smith will be based in the firm's Morristown office.

For Smith, the appointment marks a return to Cushman & Wakefield, where he served with the firm's Client Solutions Group from 1986 to 2002. Most recently, he was land acquisition manager for K. Hovnanian Homes, developing new opportunities for residential development.

Senior Home Care Services opens Madison office

MADISON: Staff at Senior Home Care Services recently celebrated the opening of their Madison office with Mayor Robert Conley and Council Members Ken Toumey and John Morris at a ribbon cutting ceremony.

Senior Home Care Services is a home care agency that provides caregivers to seniors in their own home, in assisted living communities and in nursing homes, according to a press release from the company.

George Koenig, a long-time Morris County resident, founded Senior Home Care Services in 2001 after struggling to care for his own parents who lived out-of-state, the release said. Senior Home Care Services' main office is located in Morristown.

Tri-County Orthopedics opening Cedar Knolls office

HANOVER: Physicians from Tri-County Orthopedics have collaborated with other area medical providers in the construction of a new medical building, located at 197 Ridgedale Ave., that will house Tri-County Orthopedics' newest location in Suite 300 in Cedar Knolls.
